MEMO: PRESS RELEASE, EMIL TOUR UPDATE

DATE: 18 January 2025

RE: To all Marketing Staff (The Mod Squad), please release to local press along with tickets to tonight's venue of Emil's Red Curry Pancake Paste Addiction Tour.

The recent turmoil experienced during the previous night, which involved our 78-year-old security officer provided by local authorities, has likely contributed to the current atmosphere. Reports from both local and state media suggest that the incident resembled an escalated and more formidable iteration of the GOF Zombie Sample Insurrection that occurred in Ward 5, with Emil once again positioned as a prominent participant in those events. Consequently, the venue for tonight's gathering has transformed into what resembles a fortified encampment, bolstered by a significant presence of the local National Guard.

Throughout the day, state media provided continuous live coverage of the unfolding events, featuring multiple reporters stationed alongside the National Guard, while another contingent focused on the press conference led by the Governor and various law enforcement officials.

During this conference, officials emphasized the importance of recognizing the recently amended constitution, which had been redefined and ratified by a supermajority of Ahriman Delegates during the previous year's Corporate Congress.

This historic amendment represented the first significant alteration to the First Amendment, articulating that "Everyone has the right to speak as they wish and say as they please; however, the founders did not establish any constitutional provision for the right to listen. Consequently, the Corporate Congress is empowered to impose any restrictions on the right to listen to ensure Peace and Harmony for all members of polite society."

The actions taken appeared to be intentional, serving as a cautionary message to Emil's Jesuits of Truth regarding their misguided decision to remove themselves from the Homeland Security Terrorist Watch List.

This removal did not imply that they would be permitted to disseminate their controversial and damaging narratives unchallenged. Among these narratives is the assertion that Little Joey Buyhim never possessed hairy legs, alongside the portrayal of the widely criticized figure Corn Pop, who, contrary to popular belief, was a courageous community organizer.

Corn Pop dedicated significant efforts to combat the overt racism prevalent in Delaware's Parks and Recreation system, which involved hiring excessively aggressive white individuals to enforce order at public swimming facilities predominantly serving communities of color during the mid-20th century.

As we draw nearer to the event scheduled for this evening, there is growing apprehension regarding the apparent indifference exhibited by local law enforcement towards the security of the venue.

Reports from bystanders and ticket holders for the Emil event indicate that numerous trucks have been transporting Anti-Emil protesters from various locations throughout the county, raising significant concerns about the potential for unrest and the adequacy of protective measures in place.

As we approach the conclusion of our negotiations to find a replacement for Nation House of Pancake Inc., which withdrew its sponsorship of the tour due to concerns from their corporate board regarding ongoing threats of riots and violence, we have received promising assurances from a representative of Columbia and his company.

They have indicated that, contingent upon Emil's agreement to serve as their spokesperson—referred to by them as their "poster boy"—they are prepared to fully finance the tour, elevate it to stadium-sized venues, and deploy multiple highly professional security teams to guarantee the safety of the events.

The ongoing negotiations surrounding the deal are progressing, and we anticipate finalizing them within the next week, contingent upon a favorable assessment from WWWG's Legal Team regarding the assurance of "limited" liability.

The organization WWWG expresses its gratitude towards the dedicated Emil Fanboys who persist in supporting us financially, thereby assisting in covering the substantial expenses associated with this tour, which have now escalated into the hundreds of dollars.

See you at the venue.
